

COMPOSER COURSE

This course is designed to help guide the inspired musician to get that song out of their heart, down on paper and potentially, into the hands of a publisher.

Piano with Kim

Everyone has a song in his or her heart; and this is your opportunity to get yours down on paper. Maybe you're inspired to write a song for that special someone, to commemorate an unforgettable moment or upcoming event, or compose for your own personal enjoyment. Whatever the reason, you will see your inspiration come to fruition during this six, 1-hour sessions in which, you will have 7-weeks to complete. During this creative process, we will use the 2011 edition of Finale PrintMusic to help create your professional, quality sheet music. After which, you can enter into songwriting competitions, or submit your work to a digital sheet music company that will make it available to others for sale on their website. You can also share your song on Facebook, your personal website, YouTube, or simply frame your personal masterpiece! Contact me to registrar for this creative composition class and let's get started!

COMPOSER